

The Institute for European Integration Research kindly invites you to an

EIF Lunchtime Seminar

Ukraine and the European Union: Perspectives for cooperation

Input Statement by Oksana Krayevska

Monday 9 November 2015, 12h30

Abstract: The process of the EU enlargement caused that Ukraine became a direct neighbour to the EU. This political situation in the EU-Ukraine relations mostly determines the character of these relations and the perspectives of Ukraine's future development. It is in the core interest of the EU to have an independent, politically stable and economically strong Ukraine as a neighbour. The perspective of the EU-Ukraine cooperation in different spheres of the European integration process and the realization of an integrative direction of Ukraine's foreign policy will be discussed.

Place: Seminarraum EIF, Strohgassee 45, 1030 Wien, Dachgeschoss

Sandwiches and drinks will be offered if you register beforehand at:
eif@univie.ac.at